Thomas Tempesta Installed As Our Council's Fifty Seventh Grand Knight

Shown above are the newly installed officers of the Fr. John M. Grady Council. Some long-time officers, returning officers and a few brand new comers. We are all are very happy and somewhat excited for the beginning of the new Columbian year. We are thankful Tommy has chosen to step up as our Grand Knight. He is asking for everyone to become active with our programs, activities and social events. We already have 4 new brothers since July and we are looking forward to growing our council membership. Congratulations to all our new officers!
